NSYA AGM and Division Meetings set for November 19

The Nova Scotia Yachting Association invites all member clubs, sailing schools and class associations to the 2011 Annual General Meeting which includes divisional meetings and the annual NSYA Sailing Awards luncheon.

The events take place on Saturday, November 19 at the Saraguay House (RNSYS) at 360 Purcell's Cove Road in Halifax.

The AGM is an important time of year that representatives from Yacht Clubs, Sailing Schools, and Class Associations from across Nova Scotia come together to share ideas, discuss long range plans, and shape the future of NSYA.

The Annual Awards lunch will immediately follow the AGM at 12:30pm. Find out who is named top sailors in NS, Youth Sailor of the year, and the 2011 recipient of the WOW! Women on Water Pamela Lerch Cup award among others.

New Programs Looking for Dinghies

The NSYA has been working with several communities around the province to establish Learn to Sail programs for youth. Several have expressed great interest and are well on their way to establishing programs. However, a big stumbling block is boats.

If you or your Club has some dinghies that with a little TLC would be fine for a Learn to Sail program, please contact the NSYA to be put in touch with a new program in your area.

Boat donations are eligible for tax-receipts based on fair market value.

Chartering in Europe Requires an ICC

Many European Countries require the International Certificate of Competence (ICC) for skippers.

You can now challenge for the ICC here in Nova Scotia with Judy Robertson. Details here.

NSYA Now on Twitter & Facebook

The NSYA has jumped on the Social Media bandwagon! In December we set up a Facebook Fan Page (Nova Scotia Yachting Association) and a Twitter page (NSYachting).
